

Under this, you could be called by someone from out of state but not from someone in Indiana. I have really enjoyed not getting all those phone calls and don't want to start getting them again. Please do not lessen Indiana's no-call law.